

Please make this and think
y. wonder did you ever count the value of one human life or sum the infinite amount of one heart's treasure and its weight of life's one venture and the whole concentrate on purpose of a soul —
and if you ever pause to think Richard
that all this in your hands with out a fear — did you not shrink
from such a venture
half afraid
half wishing that you could decide the risk
or cast it all aside
Yours
